Poetry.

Discord.

BY MRS. M. C. AMES.

Swift through the fragrant air it fell,
A single word;
The wound it made no word may tell,
For no one heard
Save one sweet heart, whose very very life
Is love and truth.
This heart the word pierced like a knife.
No pulse of ruth
Thrilled him who aimed the cruel word,
He willed and spoke—
A fair face quivered like a bird,
A fond heart broke.

Alas! the Springtime air is full
Of wrathful words;
They rise to Heaven and would annul
The sweet-voiced birds,
That everywhere on glancing wing
Fly from the South,
New messages of love to bring
With open mouth.

Nature's glad face the sons of men
Doth put to shame.
She says: "Poor children of the earth,
Why strive and blame?
You work and war—the will of fate
Abides the same!

The purposes of God survive
Your feeble fray;
You cannot change them though you shrive
Your sins alway.
The name you toil for may outlive
Your little day;
But you must live when earth and name
Have fled away.
Drink thou my sunshine, breathe my air,
Ere yet too late!
Take thou, with soul serene and fair,
Thine high estate!

Still the untiring earth spins tow'rd
Its central sun;
Nor fire nor force can hold it ward
Its race unrun!
The placid seasons o'er its breast
Move to and fro;
Unscared its birds brood in their nest,
Its wood flowers blow
In peace above its stormiest crest.
In God's good plan
His loveliest creatures all find rest—
Not thou, O man!

Selected Story.

The Volunteer Counsel.

A THRILLING STORY.

John Taylor was licensed when a youth of twenty-one, to practice at the bar. He was poor, but well educated, and possessed extraordinary genius. He married a beauty who afterwards deserted him for another.

On the 9th of April, 1840, the court house in Clarksville, Texas, was crowded to overflowing. An exciting case was to be tried. George Hopkins, a wealthy planter, had offered a gross insult to Mary Ellison, the young and beautiful wife of his overseer. The husband threatened to chastise him for the outrage, when Hopkins went to Ellison's house and shot him in his own door. The murderer was bailed to answer the charge. This occurrence produced great excitement, and Hopkins, in order to turn the tide of popular indignation, had circulated reports against her character, and she had sued him for slander. Both suits were pending—for murder and slander.

The interest became deeper, when it was known that Ashley and Pike, of Arkansas, and S. S. Prentiss, of Mississippi, by enormous fees, had been retained to defend Hopkins.

Hopkins was acquitted. The Texas lawyers were overwhelmed by their opponents. It was a fight of a dwarf against giants.

The slander suit was for the 9th, and the throng of spectators grew in numbers, as in excitement. Public opinion was setting in for Hopkins; his money had procured witnesses who served his powerful advocates. When the slander case was called, Mary Ellison was left without an attorney—all had withdrawn.

"Have you no counsel?" inquired Judge Mills, looking kindly on the plaintiff.

"No, sir; they have all deserted me, and I am too poor to employ any more," replied the beautiful Mary, bursting into tears.

"In such a case, will not some chivalrous member of the profession volunteer?" said the judge, glancing around the bar.

The thirty lawyers were silent.

"I will, your honor," said a voice from the thickest part of the crowd behind the bar.

At the sound of the voice many started—it was so unearthly, sweet, and mournful.

The first sensation was changed into laughter when a tall, gaunt, spectral figure elbowed his way through the crowd, and placed himself within the bar. His clothes looked so shabby that the court hesitated to let the case proceed under his management.

"Has your name been entered on the rolls of the State?" demanded the judge.

"It is immaterial," answered the stranger, his thin, bloodless lips curling up with a sneer. "Here is my license from the highest tribunal in America!" and he handed the judge a broad parchment.

The trial went on.

He suffered the witness to tell their own story, and he allowed the defense to lead off. Ashley spoke first, followed by Pike and Prentiss. The latter brought the house down in cheers, in which the jury joined.

It was now the stranger's turn. He rose before the bar, not behind it, and so near the wondering jury that he might touch the foreman with his long, bony finger. He proceeded to tear to pieces the arguments of Ashley, which melted away at his touch like frost before a sunbeam. Every one looked surprised. Anon he came to the dazzling wit of the poet-lawyer, Pike. Then the curl on his lip grew sharper, his smooth face began to kindle up, and his eyes to open dim and dreary no longer, but vivid as lightning, red as fire globes, and glaring as twin meteors. The whole soul was in his eye; the full heart streamed out of his face. Then, without bestowing an allusion to Prentiss, he turned short around on the perjured witnesses of Hopkins, and tore their testimony into threads, and hurled in their faces such terrible invectives that all trembled like aspens, and two of them fled from the court-house. The excitement of the crowd was becoming tremendous. Their united life and soul seemed to hang upon the burning tongue of a stranger, and he inspired them with the power of his passions. He seemed to have stolen nature's long hidden secret of attraction. But his greatest triumph was to come.

His eyes began to glance at the assassin Hopkins, as his lean taper fingers assumed the same direction. He hemmed the wretch within a wall of strong evidence and impregnable argument, cutting off all hope of escape. He dug beneath the murderer's feet ditches of dilemmas, and held up the slanderer to the scorn and contempt of the populace. Having thus girt him about with a circle of fire, he stripped himself to the work of massacre.

"Oh! then it was a vision both glorious and dreadful to behold the orator. His actions became as impetuous as the motion of an oak in a hurricane. His voice became a trumpet filled with wild whirlpools, deafening the ears with crashes of power, and yet intermingled all the while with a sweet undersong of the softest cadence. His forehead glowed like a heated furnace, his countenance was haggard, like that of a maniac, and ever and anon he flung his long bony arm on high, as if grasping after thunderbolts.

"He drew a picture of murder in such appalling colors that, in comparison, hell itself might seem beautiful; he painted the slanderer so black that the sun seemed dark at noonday, when shining on such a monster. And then, fixing both portraits on the shrinking Hopkins, fastened them there forever. The agitation of the audience amounted almost to madness.

All at once the speaker descended from the perilous height. His voice wailed out for the murdered dead, and living—the beautiful Mary, more beautiful every moment as her tears flowed faster and faster, till men sobbed like children.

He closed by a strong exhortation to the jury, and through them to the bystanders; the panel, after they should bring in a verdict for the plaintiff, not to offer violence to the plaintiff, however richly he might deserve it—in other words, "not to lynch the villain, but leave his punishment to God." This was the most artful trick of all, and calculated to insure vengeance.

The jury rendered a verdict of fifty thousands dollars; and the night afterward Hopkins was taken out of his bed by the lynchers, and beaten almost to death. As the Court adjourned, the stranger said:

"John Taylor will preach this evening at early candle-light."

He did preach, and the house was crowded. I have listened to Clay, Webster and Calhoun—to Dwight, Bascom and Beecher—but never heard anything in the form of sublime words even approximating to the eloquence of John Taylor—massive as a mountain, and wildly rushing as a cataract of fire.

Last words of Eminent Men.

The tongues of dying men
Enforce attention, like deep harmony:
Where words are scarce, they're seldom spent in vain;
For they breathe truth, that breathe their words in pain.
—Shakspear's Richard II.

How confident the hope of the good man in his dying hour. How full is his heart of joy. "Death is an honest hour." Men then say what they mean, and speak things that are true. The wicked man may sometimes die as dies the brute—silent, dogged and calm—but he never dies happy. The good man in death is sometimes assailed with doubts, but never with fears; and for the most part he dies joyful, happy—passing from death unto life rejoicing in the approval of conscience and the favor of God. The true secret of dying well is to live well. Compare the dying testimony of the good and bad men as given below, and learn that death is feared only by those who have failed to live lives of usefulness and well-doing.

"What blood—what murders—I know not where I am—how will all this end? what shall I do? I am lost forever—I know it."—Charles IX.

"I am making a fearful leap in the dark."—Hobbes, the infidel.

"Oh! my God, this is death."—George IV.

"They run! they run!" "who?" "the French" "Then I die content."—Wolfe.

"My sin is greater than the mercy of God. I have denied Christ voluntarily; I feel that He hardens me, and allows me no hope." Francis Spira, and Italian apostate.

"Open the shutters and let in more light."—Goethe.

But I will not extend these—Now observe the language of dying christains.

"I shall be satisfied with thy likeness—satisfied—satisfied."—Charles Wesley.

"The best of all is—God is with us."—John Wesley.

"There is a Refuge."—Charles of Bala.

"None but Christ! None but Christ!"—Lambertat the Stake.

"My Christ! My Christ!!"—Rev. John Brown.

"Welcome joy!"—Eliot the Indian missionary.

"Our God is the God from whom cometh salvation; God is the Lord by whom we escape death."—Luther.

"It is safest to trust in Jesus."—Bellarmine.

"The great conflict is over; all is done."—James Hervey.

"Oh, for arms to embrace Him! Oh, for a well tuned harp!"—Rutherford.

"Jesus, I believe."—Blincy.

A good precedent has been established in Ohio. Daniel Lewis died recently, at Ironton, of delirium tremens, and his widow brought suit against one Thomas Evans, a rumseller, of whom her husband had for years obtained his liquor. The Court awarded $5,000 damages. If this example be imitated by the wives and widows of drunkards generally, there will be fewer deaths from delirium tremens.

Miscellaneous.

The Taxation Question.

The chief argument to be used to induce the people of North Carolina to vote for the proposed convention is the one in relation to the public debt of the State and the taxation required by the present constitution to meet the interest on the same. And we are free to confess that this would be a very powerful argument if there was no other remedy. But, apart from the fact that the proposed remedy will, if resorted to, most likely prove to be worse than the disease, we are prepared to show that there is another remedy that is cheap safe and sufficiently expeditious for all purposes.

Section 2 of Art. XIII of the constitution provides that amendments to the Organic law may be submitted to the people by the Legislature in the following manner: A bill to alter or amend the constitution may be read three times in each House of the General Assembly, and agreed to by three-fifths of the whole number of members of each House, respectively, and after being so agreed to may be published six months previous to a new election of members of the General Assembly. "If, after such publication, the alteration proposed by the preceding General Assembly shall be agreed to, in the first session thereafter, by two-thirds of the whole representation in each House of the General Assembly after the same shall have been read three times on three several days in each House, then the said General Assembly shall prescribe a mode by which the amendments or amendment may be submitted to the qualified voters of the House of Representatives throughout the State; and it, upon comparing the votes given in the whole State, it shall appear that a majority of the votes voting thereon have approved thereof, then, and not otherwise, the same shall become a part of the constitution."

The present Legislature will assemble again in November 1871. Let a bill at once be introduced to amend the constitution by striking therefrom the first clause of Section 6 of Article I, and Section 4 of Article V. With these two clauses stricken out to the constitution the Legislature would have full power of compound with the State's creditors, fund the debt at a lower rate of interest, declare how much of the new debt, if any, the State is morally bound to pay and all other legislation necessary to the relief of the people. The bill to propose such amendment can be passed almost without opposition, if the convention is voted down, early in December of the present year. The six months publication can easily be made before the next election for members of the General Assembly, in August 1872. Then the Governor may, if he choses, and there can be no doubt of his cordial co-operation, convene "the next succeeding General Assembly" in extra session on the 3d Monday in September 1872. The bill can be passed in the four or five first days of the session, and also a law submitting it to the qualified voters of the State on the 2d Thursday in November, 1872, when the body may adjourn and its members return home to await the approach of the regular session on the 3d Monday in November 1872.

In this way all the amendments necessary to be made to the constitution on account of the debt and taxation question, can be made before the regular meeting of the next General Assembly, and we hazard but little in saying they will be thus made by that time, should the convention be voted down, as we have but little doubt it will be. In the mean time there will be but one more tax bill or revenue law to pass, and that one by the present General Assembly.—And surely the same General Assembly that has passed one revenue law with an omission of the taxes necessary to meet the interest on the public debt can pass another—can re-enact the same law. Where then is the overruling necessity for a convention to relieve the people of the State from the burdens of taxation? No where. The whole cry is mainly one of the politicians to induce the people to go for a convention intended mostly for other purposes, and some of them of a purely partisan character.—old North State.

The Truth at Last.

A "Democratic statesman" in the Raleigh Telegram, makes some hard hits at a certain class of politicians now in high places in North Carolina. He says:

"The men who proved false to the State during the war, now have the effrontery to claim to be its special friends and champions * * *."

Who does this hit? Look at the list: Z. B. Vance, J. M. Leach, W. M. Shipp, Jo. Turner, Jr., S. H. Rogers, A. M. Waddell, and E. E. Shober. These men, were ablebodied young men in 1861. They all professed, after the ordinance of secession was passed, to go for the war, and all except Mr. Shober entered the service. Their example had much to do in inducing others to enlist. But no sooner did these gentlemen discover that the war was to be a long and bloody war than they all set to work to get out of the army. They did it! Each and all of them sought bombproofs. And now, forthwith, they set themselves up as the representative of Southern honor; of Southern rights, and of Southern valor! For them the rare patriots of the South—the one-armed and one-legged heroes—are made to stand aside. But never mind; truth is mighty and will prevail, and some of these gentlemen who are now having a glorious time denouncing others, and outraging the right and feelings of the honest and the humble, may yet live to see their true record written in letters of shame and infamy. There are things that some of them would not like to see in print. There are things that the public know nothing of, but which the public will yet learn. They have inaugurated a war which may not end in four years, and in which they will find it more difficult to secure bomb-proofs. The soldiers of the Confederate army, will understand who were true men and who not. In due time it will be heard, and mark my prediction: there are men now high in popular esteem who will then cease to trouble and disturb the country.—A CONFEDERATE SOLDIER.—In the Wilmington Post.

Plain Thoughts for the People.

It is generally a safe rule to "let well enough alone," and it seems to be peculiarly applicable at present in regard to the attempt to call a Convention under an unconstitutional bill to amend the Constitution of North Carolina. It is a revolutionary movement of the most dangerous character, and may lead to disastrous results. It forbodes evil instead of good; strife and discontent instead of peace and harmony.

Our Constitution has been willfully misrepresented by some for party purposes. Those persons who are opposed to it should in common justice at least be able to point out and designate some of the defects which they allege it contains. It is much more convenient to state objections than to create perfection in any human production. It is one thing to make a charge but it is another thing to prove it true. Those who say they are opposed to it, allege that it is so oppressive that it is impossible to live and prosper under it. They charge that it creates a large number of useless and unnecessary officers, which is totally and entirely unfounded and untrue, as we will at once proceed to prove from the public records. Now the truth is, that there were several thousand more office holders in North Carolina, under the old Constitution, than there are under the present: and yet we hear the continual complaint from those who desire to upset the present Constitution, of too many officers and too much expense. When will prejudice and folly subside, and truth and reason re assume their sway! Why will any intelligent man intentionally misrepresent known and stubborn facts! Every man who correctly understands our present Constitution, certainly knows that it greatly decreases the number of office holders in the State.

Let us refer to the number who held office under the old Constitution, as compared with the number who hold office under the present, and compare the probable cost under the old and the new Constitution.

90 Clerks of the county Courts, each one of whom received upon an average of at least $1,000 per annum $90,0000.

90 County Solicitors, at $600 each per annum $54,000.

60 Clerks and Masters in Equity, at $500 each per annum, $46,000. It is believed that the amounts here stated are less than the above named officers received annually. But they were all abolished by our present Constitution, and that much saved to the people.

We now come to the Magistrates. There were 6000 Magistrates and more appointed for life by the Legislature, each one of whom received a copy of the laws free every year, which at the very lowest price, $1,50 per volumn, cost the people $9,000 per annum.

The above mentioned Clerks, Solicitors and Magistrates cost, at a fair and reasonable estimate, about $200,000 per annum.

That large number of officers were also exempt from working on the public roads, and from performing other public duties.

Under the old Constitution there were, as stated, about 6000 Magistrates appointed for life, and frequently on account of their supposed political influence in their neighborhoods, and the services and assistance which they might be expected to render those members of the Legislature who appointed them to the office of Justice of the Peace.—Here was an extensive field for favoritism, and the members of the Legislature generally tried to explore it to the best advantage.

Before the adoption of our new Constitution, there were six regular terms of the Anti-Convention.

REPUBLICAN MEETING.—All the citizens of this county who are opposed to the Convention as called by the last Legislature are requested to meet at the Court House in Elizabeth City on Saturday the 1st day of July, 1871, at 10 o'clock, A. M., for the purpose of nominating a candidate "Again-t Convention." Speeches will be made by Hon. John Pool, Hon. C. L. Cobb and other prominent citizens.

THE IMPORTANCE OF A DIVERSIFIED AGRICULTURE—NO. 2.

We resume the subject as we deem it one of importance to all countries, and especially to this one. It is a recognized fact that the demand regulates the supply. This being so, the question arises, why flood the market, and get less for twenty bales of cotton than might be had for ten, at greatly less than half the cost of twenty? Suppose each farmer makes half a bale per acre, forty acres must be tilled exclusively in cotton for twenty bales. Twenty acres would make ten bales, leaving twenty acres for corn or wheat, to be followed by peas, and turned under in October, thus improving the land and getting a supply of grain from it at the same time.

Now if the demand regulates the supply as it ought to do, a portion of it ought to regulate the price. But our farmers go backwards when they make the supply exceed the demand and the price is proportionally low, and the labors of a year's toil are illy and poorly paid, if want be escaped. The motto of all ought to be, enough at home for home consumption, and then the surplus in the staples of the country for extra cash. Let each farmer raise enough of everything for his own wants, and the surplus for the market.

The policy will insure a rotation of crops, and no man of intelligence and observation can deny the benefits of the system. This brings us back to the question referred to in our first article,—Is it good policy to plant one crop for a succession of years upon the same land? The improvement of the soil ought to be the farmer's first point, to do which most effectually we mention the necessity of rotation as well as manuring, and why? For the reason that all soils ought to have a certain amount of vegetable matter in them, which cannot be had in sufficient quantity under the old process.

Now our advise to our Southern farmers would be to divide, as nearly as possible, their arable land into three equal parts. If it is desired to cultivate the whole, let the first third be planted with cotton, the second corn, and balance with wheat or oats, to be followed by peas, the latter to be turned in when about half ripe. This will give a good supply of vegetable matter ready for the succeeding crop. To this land, well manured, put in cotton. Follow cotton with corn and the corn with some small grain, and this again with peas, tending each every third year in one of the standard or staple crops. This not only gives a profitable rotation, but it tends to fertilize the land.

The subject is far from exhausted. We will continue it another article.

AMUSING—IF NOT INSTRUCTIVE.

It is an amusing picture, combined with all the elements of the ridiculous, to see such men as Hubbs, of the Newbern Times, Grady, of the Wilmington Post, Hearne, of the Raleigh Telegram, Carpenter of the Rutherfordton Star, John of the Elizabeth City Carolinian, and other small lights, attempting to instruct in constitutional law such men as Gov. Bragg, Gov Graham, B. F. Moore, Judge Merrimon, Judge Howard, Edward Conigland, Judge Battle, Judge Fowle, Judge warred and a host of others, embracing nine-tenths of the legal talent and intelligence in the State.—Does not such a probability cause a smile of incredulity to pass over the faces of the good people of North Carolina?—Tarboro Southerner.

It might do so were it not for a remarkable fact—a fact, by the way which the Southerner has failed to call attention to—that the best legal minds that ever lived in North Carolina took precisely the same position on the Convention question that we do. We refer to the speeches and opinions made and published by Judge GASTON and W. B. MEARES in 1835; Gov. MANLY in 1822; WM. B. SHEPARD in 1852; Judge BIGGS, Gov. BRAGG, and Gov. REID in 1854: Judge RUFFIN, W. T. DORTCH and a host of others in 1860—1. The opinions of these worthies were not given in the special pleading style of the MOORES and WARRENS of to day. The former spoke as statesmen desiring the good of the country; the latter write as lawyers to benefit their party

POOR MEN BEWARE!

It is reported that certain advocates of Convention in different parts of the State are quietly buying the reversionary interests against individuals claiming Homesteads. What does this mean? They tell the people that the Convention will not interfere with the Homestead. They are not sincere in this, or why so anxious to buy up these claims? Suppose, however, the Convention don't meddle with the Homestead, it is not denied that one of its objects is to get rid of the present Supreme Court. Now it is well known that the present Court has decided that the Homestead exemption is Constitutional, while the men proposed to put in their place hold the opposite opinion. Let the poor men of North Carolina—white and colored—take a note of these facts.

A Troy editor lately returned a tailor's bill with the following memorandum on the margin: "Your manuscript is respectfully declined."

THE NEW LAND RESOLUTIONS.

The proceedings of the meeting of our Conservative friends in Newland appear in this issue of the NORTH CAROLINIAN. We publish them very cheerfully because we desire that all sides on the great questions affecting the interests of the people should be heard. In a fair and open contest the Truth has nothing to fear. It seems to us, however, that our Newland friends are "going it blind." We are afraid they are paying too much heed to the revolutionary teachings of such journals as the Sentinel whose editor has nothing to lose in the contest but everything to gain. Men who are irresponsible—who have no interests in common with the great mass of the people, are not safe teachers.

Our friends place great stress upon the "power vested in and derived from the people." So do we. The people of Newland are law abiding are they not? They would scorn to knowingly trample upon the recognized and properly enacted laws of the land. And yet see to what the logical deduction of their mode of stating the principle would lead to. If the people of North Carolina have the right, whenever a mere majority see fit, to ignore the Constitution and laws you bring about chaos, confusion and anarchy. The people of a county could defy the authority of the State, and the sovereign people of Newland set up independent of the jurisdiction of the county! Don,t our friends see that their position is untenable?

It is true that all power is vested in the people. In North Carolina, as in other States, they have decided, in their sovereign capacity, to establish a government Republican in form. They adopted a Constitution, solemnly agreeing to govern themselves through representatives—legislative, judicial and executive. In that Constitution they wisely provided the manner in which—should it ever become necessary—the instrument could be changed. They guarded against what temporary excitements or mere partisan majorities might bring about. They solemnly decided—see Sec. I. Art. XIII—that no Convention should be called except by a two-thirds majority of the General Assembly. In view of the excitement and passions engendered at this time, how wise this restriction of the people. It was their act. It is the law.

As to the question of the State debt, by reading an article from the Old North State on our first page, it will be seen how this matter can be met without the cost and danger of a Convention. But the Legislature had it in its power last winter to relieve us very materially in this matter. It positively refused to do it. Instead of appointing a committe to visit the creditors of the State, confer upon the matter of the debt and fix upon some plan of adjustment fair and honorable to all parties, the Democratic members of the Legislature absolutely refused to touch this the most important question to the people of North Carolina. They demand power to oppress the creditor, invade his rights and force him into measures of their own dictation. Ought not such a course to cause the cheek of every honest North Carolinian to tingle with shame!

We might pursue this subject much further, but we think we have said enough to set the honest Conservatives of Newland to thinking. The issues now before them are important ones, demanding their most serious reflection.

"The lawyers of the State are almost unanimous in the belief that the legislature had a right by a majority vote, to order an election by the people upon the question of holding a convention."—Raleigh Sentinel.

What lawyers? The same class who thought the war for the Union wrong; the same who regarded the Reconstruction acts wrong; the same who think the Homestead unconstitutional; the same who regarded our State Government as illegally established; the same who advised Gov WORTH to surrender under protest. How much weight ought the people of North Carolina to give to the opinion of such men? As these lawyers are all for it, we think it a good reason why all the laboring masses should be against it.

THE LATE BATTLES IN EUROPE.

The battles of the late war in Europe were the most uniformly successful series, on the part of the Prussians, ever fought, perhaps. The battles at Sedan resulted in the capture of the Emperor of France and 120,000 men; the battles at Metz resulted in the capture of that stronghold and 150,000 men; the fighting at Paris, in the capture of the capital and 180,000 men with 1,900 pieces of artillery. Every objective point of the campaign was gained. The struggles were all severe ones and the generalship displayed was of the highest order. The Prussians lost 40,000 in one day, and at Cherbourg the French lost 40,000 in one day.

Who is going to foot the bill of this whole Convention movement? It will be saddled on the people of course. Already our taxes have been increased sixteen cents since last year on the hundred dollars. And this was done by the party that promised to reduce taxation. They now want to add one or two hundred thousand dollars more to our burthens. Tax payers, are you willing? If so, vote for Convention. If not, vote dead against it.

Loyal and law abiding citizens of North Carolina, stop and consider before being carried off in the revolutionary Convention movement. Who are the men leading it? Look and see who are attempting to marshal you; The very men who sold you to JEFF DAVIS and the secession Confederacy; the very men who hand cuffed and gagged many of you. Will you again trust them? Will you place your property and character and life in their hands? Will you let political tricksters and red tape worn out lawyers hood wink you?

We are reliably informed that N. W. WOODFIN, Esq., of Buncombe, one of the leading men of Western North Carolina, and a prominent Conservative is open in his opposition to the Convention measure.

THE DEATH OF VALLANDIGHAM.

Hon. C. L. VALLANDIGHAM is dead. He accidentally shot himself with a revolver on Friday evening last from which he died on Saturday. He was in Lebenon, Ohio defending a man on trial for murder. He was attempting to show how his client's victim might have shot himself. He unfortunately picked up a loaded pistol instead of the empty one, which went off, the ball passing through the abdomen. He was in his 59th year of age. His sudden death produces a profound sensation. He was the ablest of the Northern Democratic leaders.

We call attention to the dastardly and cowardly acts just committed by the Ku Klux Klan in Rutherfordton, as reported by the Telegram in another column of this weeks paper. That town is in Rutherford county, this State, bordering on the South Carolina line. The Star is a Republican paper, and the victims of these midnight marauders are all Republicans. Is this the game the Anti-Conventionists of this State propose to play? With the editor of the Telegram, we repeat that "comment is unnecessary."

"CHEAP CLOTHING FOR SALE."

As VALLANDIGHAM has taken the control to furnish each Democrat with a new suit of principles, a cotemporary observes that some curiosity has been raised to know what kind of garments he is going to sell. On examination they are found to consist of the cast off suits worn by the Republicans during the war, and it is expected that he will do a large business, as the Democrats are sadly in need of something new.

We learn that the Hon. J. M. Leach one of the Conservative Members of Congress from this State is against the present Convention bill, and says that "it is unconstitutional and revolutionary, and should it be carried in the State, (which he says will never be,) it would be no more than a caucus, a mob, and that any person who votes for it, votes to sustain a mob."

The New York Day Book, a representative of the "red hot" Democracy, calls the VALLANDIGHAM platform "the great crab movement of the Democratic party," and says that it is an attempt "to crawl backwards out of sight of every painciple always held sacred by the party."

Col. Fisher remarked in the Convention of 1835, that for himself, he was opposed to an easy mode of obtaining a Convention, and decidedly preferred the plan of amending the Constitution through the Legislature.

Let no one of our readers fail to carefully examine and weigh the facts presented in the article "Plain Thoughts for the People" on our first page. It fully answers many of the arguments advanced by the Conventionists.

Ex Gov. BRAGG, when he spoke as a statesman instead of as the partisan lawyer, took the same view as we do on the mode of changing the Constitution. See what he then thought, by reading the extract on our first page.

Read the able articles on the "Taxation Question" on our first page. Therein it is shown how all this matter may be quietly met without a Convention.

Gov. REID was opposed to the revolutionary plan of the present Democracy. See extract from his opinion on our first page.

Friends of the Homstead, do not fail to read the extract from the great speech of Hon. S. T. PHILLIPS, on our first page.

Meeting in Newland Township.

Saturday, June 10, 1871.

To the Editor of the North Carolinian:

At a meeting of the Conservatives of Newland Township in Pasquotank county, Colonel Jos. S. Jones was called to the chair and C. L. Stokely was appointed secretary. The following were appointed a committee to draft resolutions for the meeting, viz: Jno. M. Hinton, J. E. Radford, D. A. Sawyer, Thomas B. Williams and H. C. Palmer. The committee reported the following resolutions:

Whereas: The General Assembly of North Carolina has passed an act submitting the question of convention, or no convention to the people of North Carolina to be voted upon on the first Thursday in August next, and believing that all power is vested in and derived from the people as asserted in our bill of rights which we hold to be good conservative doctrine in all countaies where civil liberty is prized or respected; and feeling that these sentiments go hand in hand with the great writ of habeas corpus; therefore:

Resolved, That we fully endorse the action of our Legislators in submitting the question of convention, or no convention to the people and we hereby pledge ourselves to use all honorable means in our power to call the said convention.

Resolved, That we believe in the Constitutional union of these states that this union was intended by our fathers to be a 'perpetual union in which the rights of all states should be respected equally and that we will use our best endeavors to transmit these blessings untarnished to our posterity.'

Resolved, That the payment of the interest on our State debt at this time as required by the constitution would involve an already impoverished people in utter ruin.

Resolved, That we call upon all good and true citizens to disregard past party differences and unite together in forming a true North Carolina Constitution for North Carolinians.

Resolved, That the present canvassing committee J. R. Etheridge, Jas. M. White, J. E. Radford, M. W. Buffkin and Col. Jos. S. Jones shall act as delegates from this township to the county nomination to be held in Elizabeth City July 15th 1871 and that said committee be authorized to take such further steps as in their judgement may be necessary and proper to advance the views of the friends of this township regardless of past party difference and to relieve our people from the heavy taxes and other grieveances under which they are now laboring.

Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting be sent to the NORTH CAROLINIAN and the Raleigh Sentinel with a reqnest that they publish the same.

Our Trucking Advantages.

To the Editor of the North Carolinian:

I desire to call attention, through your valuable paper, to an item of interest connected with the advantages and inducements this locality offers over any other section of our country, which has been overlooked, and lost sight of. I allude to the business of trucking—raising fruits, vegetables, potatoes, &c., for the Northern markets.

There are several persons engaged in the business spoken of, who have realized more than $125.00 per acre clear profit this season from the sales of potatoes, peas, strawberries, &c., and these parties have now planted the same land in the same crops, and expect to realize as much more from the second crops. Two fruit growers here have been sending peaches in large quantities to New York and Baltimore for the past two weeks, and have realized four dollars per bushel for them. Peas and apples have brought nearly as much.

The writer shipped considerable quantities of potatoes and peas in May to an old commission house in Baltimore, and a firm well posted in the trucking business, and was informed by the letter enclosing proceeds of sales, that the articles sent were of better quality, and sold much higher, than any in market. And the commission merchants expressed surprise, that in a locality possessing such superior advantages as this does over any other, that the business of trucking was not the principal if not the only one followed here.

It is generally known and admitted that this locality posesses great advantages for raising corn, wheat, cotton, oats, &c., in large quantities to the acre, and to great profit, and that too without manure or rotation; that the farm products can be gotten to the markets of the world cheaply and expeditiously, and that the climate is everything that can be desired, the land and labor cheap, and the soil easily cultivated, and if added to all these advantages we include the business of trucking, it places this section beyond competition, in the way of offering inducements to capitalist and emigrants.

A SUBSCRIBER.

Near Elizabeth City, June 20, 1871.

Europe.

From the papers of the 13th we learn that the Treaty of Washington came up in the House of Commons on an interrogatory, to which Mr. Gladstone replied, explaining the operation of the sixth article, relating to arms and supplies to belligerents. He also lauded the tone of the United States throughout the negotiations. In the House of Lords the subject was introduced by Earl Russell, who moved an address to the Crown against ratification, unless the arbitrators shall be bound only by international and British laws existing when the claims arose. A debate ensued, which was closed by the withdrawal of the motion. Mr. Thomas Hughes, M. P., recently eulogized the United States, the people and the Government, in an address to working men in London, and advised all to emigrate there who were vainly seeking work at home. The French engineers suggest the leveling of Forts D'Issy and Vanvres, and the building of forts at Haute Bruyeres and Chatillon. The French Finance Minister proposes raising 450,000,000 francs additional taxes, mainly from registration of agreements, liquors, sugar, coffee, textile fabrics, and colonial good, and 150,000,000 francs more by Customs. Paris is crowded with returning citizens and strangers. The harvest prospects of France and Prussia are discouraging, much of the seed having perished. In Eastern Europe the crops are promising. The famine in one district of Persia is said to have reached such a state that the starving people have killed and eaten fifty children. A dispatch from Bombay reports a vesssel bound from Kurrachee to Kotasir recently foundered near Luckpt, and eighty lives lost. Yellow fever is diminishing in Buenos Ayres, the deaths on the 16th of May having fallen to twenty a day. The manager of the San Paulo Railway is on trial for murder owing to a recent accident. The Brazilian Government has submitted a bill to the Chamber for the emancipation of all slaves owned by the Crown, and of convicted slaves after seven years' servitude.

From the papers of the 14th we learn that Gen. Trochu yesterday made a speech in the Assembly defending his administration in Paris. He said he advised Napoleon in August to recall Bazaine to Paris. At the Chalons Conference it was decided that he should, as Governor of Paris, prepare for the return of Napoleon to the capital, but the Empress opposed it. The Orleans Princes were present at M. Thier's soiree at Versailless on Monday. The German civil administrator in France, also held an interview with M. Thiers, and will leave soon for Germany. The Princess Mathilde has asked permission to return to Paris, promising to abstain from political intrigue. The work of repairing the ravages of the war is progressing, and men are at work planting trees and shrubery in the Bois de Bouhavbe. The London Times says the debate in Parliament on Monday night shows that the advantages of the Washington Treaty overbalance its deficiencies, and argues that the claims on both sides could not be settled in a better way. The Lord Mayor of Dublin died on Manday. The destruction by fire of the Peruvian ship Don Juan is supposed to have been caused by coolies entrapped on board. The crew abandoned the vessel, leaving 550 coolies fastened under the hatches. Five hundred were roasted alive, and the others escaped when the hatches burned off.

From the papers of the 15th we learn that Marshal McMahon desires to resign the command of the French Army. The reserve corps of the army is to be dissolved and Gen. Vinoy will retire from the service. An average of 24,000 persons arrive in Paris daily. The railway is crowded with Garmans returning home laden with plunder. Persons arriving from Paris say that the destruction of life and property immensely exceeds both the Government and newspaper accounts. The workmen of Paris are almost unanimously Communists. Many will emigrate to America. Napoleon visited the Kent Cricketers on Wednesday and received an ovation. He is surrounded by his old adherents, and both movements are rumored. The Left, in the French Assembly, continue to protest against Monarchist intrigues, and are supported generally, but the Radical address is not popular, on account of Communist sympathies.

From the papers of the 16th we learn that it is proposed to impeach Napoleon III., in order to counteract Bonapartist intrigues. M. Rochefort is seriously ill, and his trial has been postponed. His defense, it is said, will be based on the jurisdiction of the military Court. The Committee of the Assembly upon the budget is known to favor raising funds by means of a loan. The rentes were quoted yesterday at 52 frands 32 centimes. The bullion in the Bank of France is stated at twenty-two millions of francs. The London Times asserts that it was not England alone that made concessions in the Washington negotiations, and considers the fact unprecedented that such a grave difference should have been settled without war. The question of consequential damages by the Alabama, and kindred vessels, it says, was abandoned by the United States. And it concludes by expressing the hope that the nations of Europe, taking pattern from this, may rise to a higher conception of international fellowship. Earl de Grey and Ripon is to be created Marquis of Ripon.

From the papers of the 17th we learn that the grand triumphal entry took place in Berlin, yesterday, and the statue of Frederick William III, was unvailed with imposing ceremonies. An exciting discussion occurred in the French Assembly, on a resolution ordering an investigation into the cause of the Communist insurrection. The National Guards in the interior of France are to be disarmed. The Communist leader, Gen. La Cecelia, has been arrested. An engagement has occurred in China between the combined European and American forces and the Coreans. It is reported that the Pope will go to Corsica when King Victor Emanuel enters Rome.

From the papers of the 19th we see that the Republican journals of Paris have put forth an electoral manifesto to counteract that of the Monarchists, in which they declare the Republic the only legitimate expression of the national sovereignty, while the monarchy is abdication of that sovereignty. Swiss arrested during the closing days of the insurrection have been released. Visitors are arriving in Paris by every train. Jules Favre has defended his nonacceptance of peace on the occasion of his visit to the German head-quarters, on the ground that Bismarck had demanded the cession of Strasbourg. Minister Washburne is to spend some time at Carlsbad for the benefit of his health. M. Jules Ferry has been appointed Minister to Washington, to succeed M. Treilhar.

The Ku-Klux.

Boldly Enter the Town of Rutherfordton and Sack a Printing Office—The Residence of the Justice, of Rutherford, Member of the House, forced open, &c.

The Ku Klux in Rutherford have not yet ceased their hellish work. Mr. Logan, the Senior editor of the Rutherford Star arrived in this city yesterday, bringing a written account of the depredations of the Klan, in the town of Rutherfordton. Disguised men, to the number of fifty or more, visited Rutherfordton on Sunday night last, about midnight. They came mounted, but left their horses on the outskirts of the village, and marched in on foot. They first proceeded to the office of the "Star," which they immediately demolished, breaking the press, cases and stands, and scattering the type and other fixtures in every direction. They then deliberately proceeded to the residence of Mr. Justice, the Representative from the county of Rutherford to the Legislature. According to the statement which he has furnished the State authorities, the first intimation he had of their presence, was when they had approched his bed-side, having forced the door open with an axe and rushed into his room. They beat and maltreated him, and carried him to the out-skirts of the village in his night clothes, in the midst of a rain storm, and after threatening his life, and making him promise to cease operations against the Conservative party and the Convention, finally relased him. They failed to arrest Mr. Logan, the Junior Editor of the "Star," who was in the house when they arrested Mr. Justice, but escaped through the window. Carpenter, the Senior Editor, is at present in Washington, having been summoned to testify before the Ku Klux Committee of Congress. They also searched for Aaron Biggarstaff, who was in the village, but succeeded in eluding them. They threatened when he was arrested to kill him. Mr. Justice is not seriously injured, although he was severely treated. Owing to the darkness of the night, we learn Mr. J., was unable to identify any of the lawless gang. No effort whatever was made on the part of the law-abiding citizens of the village to resist the outrages. In fact, but few seemed to be aware of their presence until the marauders had effected their object and retired.

Citizens of that place and vicinity have written a statement to the Governor, and appeal to him for protection.

Comment is unnecessary.—Raleigh Telegram.

General Summary.

Hon. Russell Errett has accepted the Chairmanship of the Pennsylvania Republican State Committee.

A Western Democratic paper asks its party what is to be gained by voting for Radical principles under the name of new-departure Democracy.

Edward Merrill of East Lyme, Mass., is reported to have found, in a pork stew he was eating, a diamond worth $2,500. How the diamond got into the stew is a mystery.

The idea of adopting a Radical platform to elect a Democratic Presidents is declared by the Columbus (Ga.) Sun to be as sensible as burning down a house to clean it of fleas.

One of the reporters of the New-Orleans Republican, who has just fallen heir to $40,000, has taken a month's vacation, and at its expiration will return to his duties, not at all puffed up.

The residence of the late Gov. Wort,h says the Sentinel, has been sold to Mr. Frederick Burger, late of Bremen, Germany. He is a gentleman of large capital and much energy.

A son of Napoleon the Great and of Georges, the well-known actress, gets $96 a year as an attache of the National Library in Paris, while the natural son of Bernadotte, King of Sweden, plays the big fiddle at La Scala, Milan.

"An Old Texan" writes pleasantly of Mr. Greeley's visit to Galveston and Houston, and speaks of his social converse with the people, among whom he seems to have formed many personal friendships, as being a valuable experience both to the Texans and their visitor.

A report is current in Stamford, Conn., that a grocer of the town, who had bought the private residence formerly belonging to the Hon. David Brooks found a jar of gold while tearing down the chimney, and has since retired from business on the proceeds of his treasure trove.

Joseph Worley, a venerable pioneer and noted Indian hunter in days gone by, died recently at Bridgeport, Ohio, (opposite Wheeling, West Va.,) in his 103d year. He was born 13 years before the first white man had settled anywhere west of what is now Pennsylvania, and had often been engaged in hunting the white renegade, Simon Girty.

Dr. Palemon John, Editor of the Elizabeth city Carolinian, though a Republican, refuses to accept the nomination for the Convention tendered him by his Republican friends. This is one Republican who does not want office. Where can be found another?—Charlotte Observer.

The scarcity of democrats who do not want office is probably more wonderful still. There is one fact the Observer must remember, and that is that numbers of Republicans have something to do, and do it well, and hence have no time to seek places reserved for quartermasters and "political bummers."—Wilmington Post.

There is a sixteen-year old boy in Lehigh, Penn., who weighs 265 pounds.

Senator H. V. M. Miller, of Georgia, who has been very ill, is slowly regaining strength.

A Salem man has a quadrant which he says Capt. Cook, the famous navigator, once owned.

Napoleon tells Rothschild that it will not be convenient for him to pay that little bill of 4,000,000 francs to-day. Call round at the office in the beginning of the week.

One of the Democratic papers in Ohio gives a list of sixteen Democratic journals in that State that oppose the new departure, and inquires: "Will these presses consent to be muzzled by a put-up Committee at a State convention?"

Gen. R. R. Scott states that he recently found on a plantation near Charleston, S. C., a man working as a common field hand who was highly cultivated, and capable of speaking and writing 10 languages, Greek and Arabic among them. He earned so little that he was forced to teach school in the evening to support himself in the simplest manner.

George Talcott, a prominent merchant of Hartford, Conn., was recentlymarried; went to Niagara Falls for a bridal tour; caught cold there, and died within a week of his nuptials. Those prosy persons always bent on drawing morals from every thing will find it difficult whether to deduct from this case, "Never to marry," or "Never go to Niagara."

The Lynchburg (Va.,) women have presented Gen. Early with a cane, as a token of their appreciation of his services in behalf of the "Confederacy." We don't know the exact tenor of his speech on the occasion; but he might have said "I tried all I could during the Rebellion to raise Cain, but I found I was not Abel."

The Philadelphia Sunday Mercury denounces the act of its party State Convention in pretending to yield opposition to negro suffrage, saying that the superfluous and mendacious resolution adopted will not only disgust and drive off many Democrats, but prevent thousands of honest and independent Conservativet from voting with a party that has forged a lie to win an election.

Brigham Young celebrated his seventieth birthday, on the 3d inst., by a royal repast, in the Lion House, at which were eighty-seven men, women, and children, all near relations or connections of his family. His private secretary read an address, which closed with the wish: "May you live till the rulers of every nation on earth shall acknowledge the wisdom of God in your administration, seek unto you for counsel, and recognize you, as you truly are, the friend of God and man!"

The Wilmington (N. C.) Journal has joined the small ranks of the "New Deparers" with some misgiving and much lamentation, and says: "We are not going to throw up our hats and huzza for a movement which excuses, to say the least, all the injustice and the suffering which we heve endured patiently and silently. All we desire is to be let alone. We request that our feelings be respected. We demand that we shall not be insulted."

A woman on the track waving her apron violently in the air. The engineer sees her just as he is about rounding a curve. The train is stopped in its swift rush toward destruction, and the rescued passengers learn that a huge mass of rock has fallen upon the track just in front of them. This is the brief story. The woman's name (all we know of it) is Mrs. Frank, the time Thursday, June 1, and the locality, the Western Pensylvania Railroad, in Armstrong county.

This story comes from Sharp Mountain, in Pennsylvania: Two young girls a few days ago left a smaller one, about four years old, alone under a tree for a short time, and on returning to the spot found the little one standing still and speechless—neither replying to their questions nor wishing to leave the spot. They finally carried her home against her will, where every question was asked and effort made to make her speak, but in vain, until they inquired if she had seen a snake, when she immediately went into convulsions, with which she has been afflicted at intervals ever since.

The same to be removed, in sixty days after sale.—Terms—Note at sixty days, with approved security. June 12th 1871. W. G. POOL,
Sec. Pro. Tem.

A PROCLAMATION.

Whereas it has been made to appear to me on the written affadavit of John L. Wood, Sheriff of Pasquotank county, N C., that he has a capias in his hands for the arrest of Jonathan Tweedly, indicted for larceny in the county of Tyrell; that said Tweedy flees from justice, conceals himself and evades arrest and service of the usual process of the law.

And whereas it has been further made to appear, that said Tweedy goes constantly armed and is prepared, at all times, to resist the execution of lawful process—and that he lurks and conceals himself in the county of Pasquotank.

Now therefore, I, C. C. Pool, a Judge of the Superior Court, do issue this proclamation, commanding the said Tweedy to forthwith surrender himself—empowering and requiring the said Jno. L. Wood Sheriff to take such power with him as he shall think fit and necessary to search for, pursue and arrest said Tweedy; and if the said fugitive from justice shall continue to stay out, lurk and conceal himself, and do not immediately surrender himself, any citizen of the State may capture, arrest and bring him to justice, and in case of flight or resistance by him, after being called on and warned to surrender, may slay him.

Given under my hand and seal of office. at Elizabeth City, this 21st day of June A D 1871.

C. C. POOL,
Judge Superior Court.

MILLIONS Bear Testimony to their Wonderful Curative Effects. They are not a vile Fancy Drink, made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors doctored, spiced and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true medicine, made from the native roots and herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER and a LIFE GIVING PRINCIPLE, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the System, carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

They are a Gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, possessing also the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and all the Visceral Organs.

FOR FEMALE COMPLAINTS, whether in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood or at the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters have no equal.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation

THIS WEEK'S ADVERTISEMENTS.

We call attention to the following new advertisements in this issue.

New York Advertisements.
A Proclamation.
Market House for sale.
Ho! For Nag's Head.
Notice.

Local and Personal.

☞ Court in Dare county next week.

☞ Read the Call, in this issue, for the County Convention at this place on Saturday week July 1st.

☞ It is an established axiom of trade that a good thing well advertised will sell.

☞ Articles still crowd upon us. Several—editorials and others—must go over to our next issue.

☞ The contract for removing the obstructions in the Roanoke River has been awarded to Lt. John M. Foote, of Plymouth. He is a man of energy.

☞ Dr. W. BARROW, Collector of United States Internal Revenue, visited this end of the District the past week. He was in town on Saturday, and spent the Sabbath here.

☞ There will be an Ice Cream Feast in the GUIRKIN building on to morrow (Friday) evening, the proceeds to be bestowed on a worthy object. Let everybody go.

☞ We made an error in announcing the time of the Sabbath School Address by WALTER F. POOL. It will be delivered in the M. E. Church on Wednesday evening next.

☞ In response to the request of our Wilmington, (Del.) correspondent—see last weeks paper—our weather Reporter has given the tempertaure three times each day for the week.

☞ By the announcement it will be seen the Steamer "Hertford" has been thoroughly overhauled and promises to make the trip to Nag's Head this season within 5 hours. That will do. It will be largely patronized.

☞ Judge BROOKS is still at Raleigh attending the Supreme Court. We learn that he and Judge BOND have ordered that many of the petty cases now on the docket there from distant sections of the State, be transferred to the District Courts at Morganton, Wilmington, Newberne and Elizabeth City.

☞ The Money order business at this place is rapidly increasing. Post Master PRICE informs us that since the 1st of January of the present year to the 15th of June—five and a half months—he has issued Money orders to the amount of eighteen thousand, seven hundred and ninety one dollars and twenty three cents.

☞ A yellow woman named Wecks was arrested on Tuesday and brought before his Hon the Mayor on the charge of robbing a Boat Captain of $280. It was alleged that she entered the cabin at night and took the money while he was asleep. On agreeing not to appear against her if she would restore the money, she told where it was concealed. The place was examined and $204 found. The balance she said was taken by another woman who was with her and had just left town.

☞ It is a very poor apology for correspondents to tell us, "This is very poorly written. I do not know whether you can read it. I was in a great hurry" etc. While we are glad to get items of news written in almost any style and will willingly take time to dress them up to appear in print, we are not willing to rewrite articles in which the author is more interested than ourself or the public. Our time is quite as valuable as those who write so carelessly as to require an apology. With us this thing is about played out.

☞ We know of parties who a few years ago were rampant advocates of the Homestead, but having since paid their debts by Bankruptcy are now opposed to it. We hear of others holding notes against parties covered by the Homestead who are trying to make compromises by telling said parties that the Convention will be called, the Constitution changed and then they will be compelled to pay the whole amounts, with interest. Are not these things significant? Ought they not to open the eyes of the very blind?

☞ On passing through the different parts of our City we are gratified to see the spirit of improvement that is awakened and is becoming general in practice. Not a street but some one is "fixing up." All this is evidence of life, public spirit and good taste. Indeed we know of no town in the South that has improved so rapidly as Elizabeth City the past year. And the prospects are that there will be still greater improvement in the year to come. It is some pleasure to live in a town where the spirit of Progress rules.

☞ By the following circular, sent to every family in the City, it will be seen that among other important things the sanitary condition of the town is to be looked after and attended to. It is a step in the right direction.

Health being of the first importance to the prosperity of every town, the present Board of Commissioners have determined to do everything in their power, consistent with their limited means, to improve the sanitary condition of this City. We therefore ask every citizen to co-operate with us and trust that the response will be hearty and general.

The object of this circular is to especially request that the inmates of every family in the City do at once examine their premises and see to it that everything connected with their houses, stables, privies, kitchen drains, closets, cellars etc., are thoroughly cleansed and put in a good sanitary condition.

These matters being of such great importance to the public comfort and health, the Commissioners respectfully but firmly insist that they be attended to at once. If they are not, the Board will be under the necessity, through their Health Officer, to resort to such means as will accomplish the desired end and at each delinquents expense.

☞ At last Shepard Street is to be improved and its side walks from Road Street to the Long Bridge widened, graded and made comfortable for pedestrain travel. As this street has become the prominent promenade of the City this improvement is a necessity, and we are glad to know that the City Fathers have decided to meet the public requirements.

☞ The proceedings of the meeting of the Citizens of Chowan County, "Against Convention," being lengthy, reached us too late for this issue. They will appear next week. AUGUSTUS M. MOORE, Esq., was nominated as the Anti-Convention candidate. A better selection could not have been made. Speeches was made by Capt. D. McD. LINDSEY and Hon. J. W. ALBERTSON.

☞ On reading the proceedings of the last meeting of the City Council, published in this issue of our paper, it will be seen that Dr. UNDERWOOD has been appointed General Superintendant as well as Health Officer of this City. This is universally conceded to be a fit appointment. We know he feels the full responsibilities of his position, and while he will perform his full duty he will do nothing except what he feels satisfied the public good requires. Let him have the full and hearty co-operation of every inhabitant of the town.

OUR LOCAL PORT-FOLIO.

Reading matter—on every page of the NORTH CAROLINIAN. An object of interest—deposit in the Bank. A good side show—a pretty cheek. Of no use till drawn—beer. The woman question—is he married? A sweeping catastophre—to be knocked down with a broom. The sepulchre of living men—idleness. The fruitful parent of misfortune—rashness. Whatever is, is right—except your left hand and foot. Embers from which the sparks have fled—old maids. A noose-paper—a marriage certificate. Our friend Culpepper can supply the license to procure one. Nice—to have a plate of rich Ice Cream brought to your house or office just as you want it. A very handsome residence—that of Mr. Zimmerman. Only one objection to people who "mean well"—they never find time to carry it out. The magic mirror—a beautiful face lit up with smiles. To memory dear—promisary notes. The greatest earthly blessing—a good wife. Got a lot of nice buggies on hand and a good mechanic—Capt. Jno. S. Waugh. A time to run—when you are in a hurry. The best share in a farm—the plow share. Right on the tap—our shoemakers. Busy giving "em fits"—Dr. Krebs & Co., at their new Tailoring establishment. Always ready with a joke or a good story—our friend Capt. Harney. Making preparations—a number of our people to spend the hot season at Nag's Head. The best read man in town—our friend Fred Proctor. The best in the country—the Elizabeth City Cornet Band. A popular man these warm days—Magee, the Ice man.

Business Locals.

While times are a little dull Keaton tries to make his prices suit them. The very best groceries, provisions, dry Goods and merchandize generally always on hand. He wont be undersold.

Our friend A. E. Jacobs was in town again last week. He is doing a splendid trade in the Dry Goods, Clothing, boots, Shoes and notion line at the reliable stand of Lowenberg & Jacobs 35 Market Square Norfolk Va.

DR. TUTT'S EXPECTORANT.—All who have used this invaluable medicine for coughs, colds, Asthma, Spitting of Blood croup, Inflamation of the Lungs or chest. Hoarseness, Difficulty of Breathing, Bronchitis, and all diseases of the Lungs attest its usefulness. For lung affections it has no equal.

Proceedings of City Commissioners.

MAYOR'S OFFICE, E. City, June 12, 1871.

9. On motion, J. Horton Miskill was elected Constable, and to perform such other duties as this Board may from time to time direct, at a salary of $500, (five hundred dollars.)

10. On motion, Commissioners of this town were allowed twenty-five dollars, each, for their services for the year.

11. On motion, William Krauss was elected Coal and Wood Inspector.

12. On motion, ordered that all officers of this town are required to give Bond, present the same by July 1st next, and that the Secretary notify them of same.

13. On motion, ordered that the offer of Dr. John, Editor of the "North Carolinian," to publish all the proceedings of the meetings of this Board, at one dollar for proceedings of each meeting, be accepted, and that all such proceedings be published in his paper.

14. On motion, Commissioner Underwood, Davis and Commander, were appointed a committee to have a survey made of Water and Shepard Streets, and to report to our next meeting in regard to same.

15. On motion, Commissioners Guirkin and Pool were appointed a Committee, to rewrite and rearrange the ordinances of this town, and to ask the aid of C. W. Grandy, city Attorney, in the same.

16. On motion, ordered that J. H. Miskill be superintendent of the citizens when called out to work upon the public streets of Elizabeth City, and that he have the same duties as appertain to the Overseer of public roads in North Carolina.

17. On motion, ordered that Commissioner Underwood be General Superintendent of the public streets of Elizabeth City, and Director of Labor upon the same, as to place, manner and time—subject only to such regulations as the Commissioners of the town may from time to time direct.

18. Ordered that Dr. Wm. Underwood be Health Officer of this city, with such powers and duties as appertain to same office in other cities, and that he make a written monthly report to this Board of such matters and facts, connected with this position, as he may deem proper.

19. On motion, ordered that the Market House in Elizabeth City, on Saturday the 1st day of July next, at 12 o'clock, M., be sold by the Town Constable, at the Court House door, to be removed in sixty days. Terms: Note at sixty days, with approved security. Notice of this sale to be posted in the town of Elizabeth City at 3 or more public places, and published once in the "North Carolinian."

20. On motion, ordered that the Commissioners will furnish Gasoline, or other material to light such suitable lamps as private persons may erect upon the public streets of this town, and that the Town Constable light the same every night, and have the control of the same under the direction of the Mayor.

21. Ordered, that his Honor, the Mayor and Commissioner Davis, ascertain the number of persons in this town subject to "road duty"—that they clasify the same in squads of twenty, that each squad be required to work upon the streets in regular order as classified, and that his Honor, the Mayor, keep a record of all persons so classified, and called upon—that no unequal labor be required of any, and that he prosecute to the utmost extreme any one who may refuse, or neglect, to perform such "road duty" when properly called upon for the same.

22. On motion, ordered that, after such publication and notice, as the law requires, the "road hands" of Elizabeth City be called out, by the Mayor, in squads of twenty a day, to work upon the public streets of E. City, to work from day to day, as the General Superintendent of the streets may direct, until every man shall have been called upon to perform one day's labor.

A LECTURE. TO YOUNG MEN.

Just Published, in a sealed envelope Price six cents. A Lecture on the Nature, Treatment and Radical Cure of Spermatorrhœa, or Seminal Weakness, Involuntary Emissions, Sexual Debility, and Impediment to Marriage generally; Nervousness, Consumption, Epilepsy, and Fits; Mental and Physical Incapacity, resulting from Self-Abuse, &c.—By ROBERT J. CULVERWELL, M. D., Author of the "Green Book," &c.

The world-renounced author, in this admirable Lecture, clearly proves from his own experience that the awful consequences of Self-Abuse may be effectually removed without medicines, and without dangerous surgical operations, bougies, instruments, rings or cordials, pointing out a mode of cure at once certain and effectual by which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically. This Lecture will prove a boon to thousands and thousands.

Sent under seal, to any address, in a plain sealed envelope, on the receipt of six cents, or two postage stamps. Also Dr. Culverwell's "Marriage Guide," price 25 cents. Address the Publishers,

HALL'S HAIR RENO

AGRICULTURAL, HORTICULTURAL AND DOMESTIC MATTERS.

Renovating Poor Land.

For speedily improving the poor lands of the South, there is nothing better than the common field pea. It is a plant that derives much of its support from the air, and will therefore do well on poor soils. It germinates with certainty and grows rapidly, and two crops of it may be raised on the same soil the same year. A judicious management of field peas and marl will render fertile any soil where peas will grow; and land "too poor to sprout a pea" is fit for no agricultural purpose.—For improving land simply, I like it better than clover. There is less uncertainty and less trouble about it, and it may be done in a shorter time.

Sow the first crop at the rate of one and a half bushels, as soon as all danger from frost is over, say last of April. As soon as the vines are pretty well in bloom, (with a few young peas on earliest vines,) turn all under, and sow down and harrow in another bushel and a half to the acre. These will be ready to turn under, if you so intend, in September, when you can seed down to wheat if you like, or winter oats. Or if a late fall, and you are short of corn, you can give your porkers a lift by turning them in to eat off the peas. I would advise every farmer to plant at least one field for his hogs. After your hogs have eaten off the peas, or while doing so, if you design the land for corn or other crops next year, haul on and spread from one to three hundred bushles of marl to the acre, according to the state of the land. If the land is bare, with little or no vegetable matter, less marl; if having plenty of humus, more. I make no doubt that land thus treated with peas and marl would be just the thing for peanuts.

The Southern field pea is so useful in several aspects that it appears not a little strange that no greater use is made of it, both as an improven of poor soils and as long forage for stock. The vines thoroughly cured make one of the best long feeds known.

The best way to cure is to cut (not pull) the vines, and let them wilt in the sun a day or two. Then make a rail pen and put a floor of rails two or three rails from the ground; now raise the sides four rails higher, and fill up with the vines then another floor of rails, and four rails to the side, lay on a ridge pole, and make a roof of stalks to shed the rain. The vines will cure nicely, and keep sweet all the winter.—Rural Messenger.

How to distroy Insects in your Orchards.

The address of J. W. Robson before the Jo Daviess County (Illinois) Horticultural Society, has some excellent points relating to orchard culture, and especially the depredations of insects, and he recommends every orchardist to observe these few details every season:

1st. "Encourage the black-cap titmouse and the hairy woodpecker, which destroy the insects in the pupa state.

2d. Light small bonfires in the orchard, on dark nights, after the sun has set. This will destroy the moth.

3d. Pick up wormy fruit as soon as it falls, run it right through the cider mill, or throw it to the hogs to be eaten.

4th. Strips of woolen cloth tied around the trunks when the trees are in bloom, and examined twice a week, will destroy those that have escaped and crawled there for shelter. They will be found generally in a transformation state, between worm and pupa.

5th. Place a bunch of weeds or soft hay in the crotch of the tree at the same time, and examine frequently. You have only to look at these dishes of beautiful fruit, to see how this insect destroys the appearance and lessens the market value of the apple.

Brother Horticulturists, up and be doing, bear in mind that eternal vigilance is the price of handsome, perfect fruit!"

How to Make Farm Life Attractive.

1. By less hard work. Farmers often undertake more than they can do well, and consequently work too early and too late.

2. By more system. The farmers should have a time to begin and stop labor. They should put more mind and machinery into their work. They should theorize as well as practice, and let both go together. Farming is healthy, moral, and respectable; and, in the long run, may be made profitable. The farmer should keep good stock, and out of debt.

3. By taking care of health. Farmers have a healthy variety of exercise, but too often neglect cleanliness, eat irregularly and hurriedly, sleep in ill-ventilated apartments, and expose themselves needlessly to cold.

4. By adorning the home. Books, papers, pictures, music, and reading should all be brought to bear upon the in-door family entertainments; and neatness and comfort, order, shrubbery, flowers and fruits should harmonize all without. There would be fewer desertions of old homesteads if pains were taken to make them agreeable. Ease, order, health, and beauty are compatible with farm life, and were ordained to go with it.

FOWL-HOUSE MANURE.—A "Greenhorn" writes: "I should like to know how to fix hen-manure so that it will not be too strong for corn or garden vegetables. I tried it last spring, but it killed everything I planted with it. If you will answer through Hearth and Home, you will oblige a greenhorn." Ans.—Our reader can "fix" the nitrogen in hen-manure by sprinkling fine earth or plaster under the roots, and cleaning up every thing once a week. The materials should be mixed with dry earth, muck, or any fine material, and laid in a heap under cover. Toward spring it may be worked over and more muck or earth added, the lumps being beaten fine. The amount of muck added should be fully twice as much as the original quantity of hen-manure. This will be fine, and in small quantities not too strong for most vegetables.

RIBBONS RENEWED.—Wash in cool suds made of fine soap, and iron when damp. Cover the ribbon with a clean cloth, and pass the iron over that. If you wish to stiffen the ribbon, dip it, while drying into gum arabic water.

The Emperor of China, like the little Grand Duke of the German States, has a very large income from gaming hous From those of Pekin alone, it is said, derives a revenue of about $200,000 annum, and from the whole Empire not less than $3,000,000.

John Murchison, residing in Meade County, Ky., having had a large piece of skin torn off in a saw-mill recently, had its place supplied by a rat skin, and the surgical operation was a perfect success. It is said to be the first case of the kind on record.

A Maine Democratic paper says that the list of candidates for its party's nomination for Governor has been "narrowed down" to eighteen, whose names it gives.

DESCRIPTIVE CATALOGUE.

OF VALUABLE

NORTH CAROLINA LANDS,

FOR SALE BY

GEORGE D. POOL.

Real Estate Agent,

ELIZABETH CITY, N. C.

In presenting my list of lands and other properties for sale, I would say that no section of the United States offers such inducements for capitalists and emigrants, as this section of North Carolina. In longevity and healthfulness, it will compare favorably with any where; and in easy and cheap transportation of products to market, in pleasantness of climate, in the sociability of the people, in great fertility, and durability of soil, no section can equal it.

A railroad will soon be built to Weldon, putting this place in direct communication by Rail, with the whole United States. This, together with our great fishing, farming and manufacturing interests, and certain early completion of already projected works of improvement for putting in nearer, cheaper and easier communication with the Ocean, will render this one of the most important commercial, and manufacturing points on the Southern country.

A Steam Saw and Grist Mill in the town of Nixonton 8 miles from E. City. This Mill has a fine wharf and store attached on deep navigable water, the engine is 40 horse power, and all in good order. It is one of the finest locations to be found any where for custom work, and for getting good saw logs easily and cheaply. Price $4,000 cash.

Adjoining the mill property is 40 acres of fine land on the River, with three houses, all for $1200. Near the same is a good two story dwelling and 13 acres of land for $2,000, and a good one story dwelling, with one acre of land for $300.

Also two fine farms in Pasquotank county, 10 miles from E. City, within half mile of church, school house and post office. One tract contains about 400 acres, with fair buildings and mostly cleared, and the other contains 300 acres, with good two story dwelling, large barn, and other outhouses, both are offered at $20 per acre, one third cash, balance in one and two years.

Also one other tract in Pasquotank county, containing 116 acres, within one mile of the town with fine buildings, mostly cleared and in cultivation. Price $25 per acre, one half cash, balance in 12 months.

A valuable site for a hotel at Nag's Head, 40 miles from Elizabeth City, and 50 miles from Edenton. This is situated immediately on the Ocean, and is a famous Summer resort for invalids, and those seeking health, comfort, and amusements during the summer months. It is in direct communication by steamboats and railroad with all parts of North Carolina, Virginia, and the North; and is equal in natural advantages to Newport, or Cape May. Visitors flock to this famous summer resort by hundreds and thousands, and a large amount of money can be made by a hotel. A charter has been obtained from the Legislature of N. C., for a joint stock company to build the hotel. There is now an old hotel on the spot, which could be cheaply repaired and bought for $3,000. This hotel, though imperfectly kept, cleared the proprietor last season, over $3,000. For a man or a company, having some capital, this is one of the finest chances to make money at hotel keeping to be found anywhere. The early attention of the public is invited to this property.

A fine steam saw and grist mill at Hertford, the county seat of Perquimans County, N. C, 18 miles from Elizabeth City. This mill has a fifty horse power engine, now in good running, two pairs of best French burr stones, and two upright saws. The house has a brick basement, and the building is large and in good order. There is one and a half acres of land belonging to this property, and a good two story dwelling, and other out-houses. The section of country adjacent abounds in the finest yellow pine, cypress, ash, poplar, and other valuable timber. This property originally cost $15,000, and is now offered at forced sale for the low price of $3,500, $7,00, cash, and the balance in six equal instalments, six months apart each with interest.

A fine farm and fishery in same county. The farm contains 400 acres of the finest land, lies immediately on Albemarle Sound where the water is 12 miles wide, and 18 to 20 feet deep, has got buildings, and fine neighborhood. The fishery is on the farm and goes with it. It has a new seine 2,500 yards long, and all the necessary boats, buildings, &c., (which cost over $15,000 two years ago.) The fishery alone, of a good season, will make from 5 to $10,000 profit to the owner. This property is offered at forced sale for the low price of $20,000, $7,000 cash, balance on easy times.

A store at South Mills, in Camden county, 20 miles from E. City, and 20 miles from Norfolk, lying on the canal where steamers pass daily. A fine chance for merchandize. Store is large with dwelling above containing six rooms, is in first rate order, has office, kitchen, dairy, and other necessary outhouses. Goods to the amt. of $50,000 per annum can be sold here, and at large profits. A splended stand for a country retail store. Price $2,500—one third cash, balance in one and two years.

A valuable tract of land in Camden county, at South Mills, on the Dismal Swamp Canal, lying on the canal for two miles, containing over 900 acres of land—two-thirds cleared, and in a fine state of cultivation, with good buildings, &c.; balance in valuable timber. Price $12,000, one-third cash, balance in one and two years, interest from January, 1871. This is a valuable farm for corn, wheat, and vegetables, and being midway between Elizabeth City and Norfolk, and located where steamers pass by the door daily, is a desirable and cheap property.

A fine farm of 600 acres within six miles of E. City, one mile from navigable water, and the best cotton farm in the State. It is also well adapted to raising corn and wheat. This farm has a splended two-story dwelling upon it, large barn, 40 by 60 feet, a large number of outhouses, by splended trees and shrubbery, is in a strong Union neighborhood, and altogether the most desirable place in the county. A little over one-half of this land is cleared, and the balance is covered with the finest yellow pine, poplar, ash and other timber. Price $30 per acre—one-third cash, balance in one and two years with interest. Title reserved.

Sixteen houses and lots in Elizabeth City, with good dwellings, out-houses, &c. Prices and terms reasonable.

A valuable farm in Perquimans county, N. C. near navigable water. Has a fine dwelling-house with ten rooms, in splended order, with splended barns and stables—all in first rate order. The farm is very productive in corn, oats, wheat, cotton and clover. It is one of the finest farms in the State and is now in good cultivation, contains 585 acres of land, about three-fourths cleared and under cultivation. Price $10,000, one-third cash January 1, next balance in two equal annual instalments with interest at the rate of six per cent.

A farm of 370 acres 8 miles from town by water, and 12 miles by land, is offered for sale for $10,000 in easy payments. This tract of land lies immediately on the River which is 4 miles wide and washes the farm its whole length on one side, and a branch of the River one mile wide, binds it on one end. The land is well adapted to raising corn, wheat, cotton, oats, peas, &c., lies high and dry, and is susceptible of the highest improvement. Fronting and looking over, as it does, two large sheets of navigable water, where steamers and sailing vessels are constantly passing, carrying freight and passengers to all parts of the country, its location and surroundings, are of the most fascinating and desirable character. There is a fishery on it ready for working a seine 2,500 yards long, and which commands a portion of both streams of water, and can be made immensely profitable. The price charged is low, and the purchase a very desirable one. The buildings consist of a good two-story dwelling and out-houses.

A tract of valuable land, containing 356 acres, with fine two story dwelling containing 9 rooms and cook-room. Servant's house with 3 rooms, large barns and stables, all necessary and convenient out-houses, 3 tenant-houses near town, and immediately on the River. About 100 acres of this land is in fine wood and timber, balance in a fine state of cultivation. It has 8,000 grape vines one year old, 3,500 peach, apple and dwarf pear trees, five acres in strawberries which yielded an immence profit this year, ten acres in Lawton and other rare varieties of black-berries, 15 to 20,000 young peach trees with other choice fruits too numerous to mention. This farm has a public road on one side, and the River on the other, where strangers come daily to the landings to receive the fruits and vegetables, and carry them down to Norfolk, Baltimore, Phila., or New York. The land is finely adapted to raising corn, wheat, cotton, oats, and all other crops.

The owner of this farm offers to sell in tracts, to suit purchasers, say in 50 to 100 acre tracts, and at prices ranging from 35 to $80 per acre, according to location, buildings, &c.

There is also on this farm a fine fishery, where a seine 1,000 yards long, and 20 feet deep is hauled every Spring. Herring, Shad, Rock-fish, Sturgeon and other valuable fish, are caught by thousands at every draw of the seine. And the profits are frequently large. This fishery of itself is worth nearly as much as is charged for the whole property. The terms will be liberal. This is probably the finest opportunity offered any where for a profitable investment.

☞ Fishery has an office, and two houses for hands besides fish house. Then some 500 to 1,000 loads of best fish manure on hand, besides over 5,000 loads of compost made ready for use. This goes with the farm.

A desirable house and lot in the town of Elizabeth City on the corner of two principal streets, the principal one, and situated in the best business locality in the town. The lot contains about two acres of land, and the buildings consist of a fair dwelling three stories high, containing eight rooms, all in good order, another two story building with four rooms and pantries, dairy, smokehouses, stables, &c. The dwelling has a good cellar under it. There is room on the front lot to erect two good stores, and they would occupy the best stand in the town for merchandize.

BONE DUST.—

The subscriber has just erected at his Farm, near the city, the most improved machinery for making BONE DUST, and is now ready to fill orders for any quantity, which will be delivered at the shortest notice.

The BONE DUST will be finer than any heretofore made by him, (no chemical process resorted to,) enabling the Farmer or Planter to sow it with a Drill.

Mr. Samuel Sands, well kntown to the Farmers and Planters of the United States as the former Editor of the "American Farmer and Rural Register," will have charge of his office, NO. 63 S. GAY STREET, near Pratt, and will be happy to receive the visits or orders of his old friends.

$45 per ton, put in new bags. No charge for bags.

Farmers and others are invited to visit my works. I have nothing to conceal.

My men have nothing nice to perform, therefore I have no "non-admittance" signs on my premises. Persons are free to examine my factory, and the modus operandi of Dust making.

I cannot afford to pay 5, 10 or 20 per cent. to commission merchants, as my profits do not exceed 10 per cent.

Bone Dust, as manufacured by me, is A simple, and its quality cannot be made to conform to the price.

TO THE PUBLIC.

THE LAND AND LUMBER COMPANY having a large amount of Real Estate of their own to dispose of, and their business having increased to such an extent, they think it prudent to decline acting further as Commission Agents for the sale of lands belonging to others. They will however be glad at all times to furnish every facility to parties coming to Elizabeth City with a desire to look at the country and make purchases if they find it to their interest to do so.

The following list of property, owned by the Company, is offered for sale on the most reasonable terms. Their object now is to acquire a larger monied capital for the purpose of further developing their unimproved lands and carrying out their original design of increasing the Commerce and General Trade of Elizabeth City.

As there are others in the Commission Business, parties are referred to their advertisement for further information.

ELIZABETH CITY.

The following desirable list of Properties in Elizabeth City are offered at very reduced prices for cash or on time payments at rates which make any of them excellent investments for capitalists. We feel confident that this City is destined to become a large place and property will advance rapidly. Emigration is now tending Southernward and the feeling is in universal favor toward Elizabeth City.

A large two-story dwelling known as the Parsonage, with fine double Piazza, front and back, large out kitchen, stables, carriage house, with 17 acres of ground well enclosed. This ground is all within the corporation of the City, and is well situated to lay out in building lots and make out of it ten fold the price asked for it.

A two-story dwelling containing ten rooms, 10,000 gallon cistern and all necessary out-houses, with large lot. Situated on Main Street. A Vacant Lot no better located and not so large as this was sold recently for $1600 cash.

A large brick store house and wharf situate on Water street; in E. City, comprising three lots with 400 feet of water front, permanently wharfed for the accommodation of large vessels. There is erected on these lots a large two-story brick building, 50 by 80 feet, well fitted up for a wholesale or retail trade at present occupied by the "Yankee Store."

A large wood store on west side of Water street 36 by 60, two stories high, being one of the best stands on Water street for merchandizing.

A House and Lot on Riverside Avenue. House 20ft front by 50 ft deep. Containing eight rooms with Pantry and Cellar, all well finished, modern style, and having all necessary out buildings. The lot contains a front of 400 ft, and would be a good location for a large shop or foundry as one whole side fronts on the water.

Also a large number of Wharf Lots, Mill Lots and Vacant Lots at very low prices, some of which are enumerated below. The Wharf Lots are 200ft deep and will be sold to any size desired along the River. Among them are some most eligible situations for Store Houses, Mills and Manufactories of any kind as there is a fine harbor immediately in front of them, having 30ft of water, sufficient for vessels of any capacity. Along Pennsylvania Avenue are offered some of the finest and choicest lots, for dwellings in town at prices varying according to location. This will be the finest street in town, is 80 feet wide, size of Lot 100ft front by 200ft deep. There are now a number of first class residences being erected on this street. Immediately in the nicinity of these Lots the Company have erected a large Planing Mill, Sash, Blind and Door Factory at a cost of near $20,000 and also their Saw Mill at a cost of near $15,000. That now is the proper time to invest in those Lots there can be no doubt, as they will double in value in a very short time. Lots not near so good as these, are now selling in other parts of the City at more than double the price asked for these.

VACANT LOTS.

Lots Nos. 150, 155, 158, 161, 163, 165, 167, 170. 172. 175, 178, 180, 182. 185, 187. 190 193, 195, 198 and 200, situate on Pennsylvania avenue, in the new extension of Elizabeth City, all choice lots, intended for the better class of residences. Size of lots 100 feet front by 200 feet deep. Price varying, according to location, from $100 to $1000.

TOWN LOTS.

Lots Nos. 250, 253, 255, 256, 258, 261, 263, 266, 267, 268, 271, 283, 285, 287, 288, 289, 291, 296, 299 and 300, situated on various Streets in the new extension of Elizabeth City, size of lots 50 feet front by 100 feet deep, at prices varying from $25 to $100.

MILL LOTS.

Four Mill-Lots situated on Knobb's Creek, so that logs can be taken from the creek to the mill. These lots have 200 feet each of water front, and over 600 feet deep to Mill street, and are choice sites. The purchaser will also have the right of storage for logs in the boom.

PASQUOTANK COUNTY.

The Land and Lumber Company also offer for sale, one thousand acres of their timbered land along the Main Road leading from Elizabeth City to Hertford and Edenton, Said land heavily wooded, soil very rich and about four miles from Elizabeth City. This land will be sold in lots to suit purchasers and at the low price of ten dollars per acre.

They also offer a tract of three thousand acres in Lots to suit purchasers, near the Pasquotank River, ten miles from Elizabeth City and three miles from South Mills. This land is heavily with wood and also has upon it a vast amount of saw timber, and has a most excellent soil. This is a fine location for a small Colony. There is now a Public Road running directly through it. This tract is offered at the low price of eight dollars per acre if sold to one party, or at only a fraction more if divided into small lots.

The Company will also sell their farm of 250 acres two miles from Elizabeth City. 125 acres cleared and under good cultivation, well fenced, having upon it two dwelling houses, one new and the necessary out buildings wanted on a farm, and will be sold on very reasonable terms.

Also another farm one mile from Elizabeth City containing one hundred acres, between thirty and forty acres cleared and under cultivation, the balance is now being cut off and is nearly ready to be cleared up and cultivated. This property is very desirable being so near the City though for reasons first given will be sold at a very low price.

We have a finely timbered tract of land situated on the Albemarle Sound twenty miles from Elizabeth City, containing 124 acres. Good timber land bordering on the water is valuable both for wood as well as saw timber as water transportation affords a good margin for wood, say one dollar per cord. This will also make good farm land—will be sold for one thousand dollars.

Also one other tract of land containing 154 acres situated immediately on the Pasquotank River ten miles from Elizabeth City, valuable for wood, and is excellent farming lands, would be sold for six dollars per acre.

GATES COUNTY.

The Land & Lumber Company have a tract of 350 acres of timbered land one half mile from Chowan River and three miles from Winton the county seat of Hertford county. This body of land is well timbered and will be sold at the low price of three dollars per acre.

☞ The most direct and cheapest route is to go to Baltimore by N. C. R. R., then Bay Line steamer to Norfolk, Va., then steamer to Elizabeth City, N. C.
